Barry,

Thank you for your letter. Our agreements to accept declarations for certain requests are conditioned on receiving information in those declarations sufficient to fully respond to each request. Additionally, as I stated on our call, Plaintiffs will not agree to a cost-sharing agreement based solely on the estimates of FXCM employees. If FXCM wishes to discuss a proposal for splitting the costs of production between Plaintiffs, FXCM, and/or Defendants, Plaintiffs will require independent verification of FXCM's cost estimates, including competitive estimates from third-party vendors. Plaintiffs note that "professional vendors" are subject to the operative protective order in this case, which should abrogate any confidentiality concerns with respect to the vendors.

Best,

JOSH RIPLEY / Associate
